DEDICATION

We, the Class of 1954 -- the first class to enter the new building -- dedicate our yearbook to New London Central School. From the outside it seems to be a brick building with green lawns and many trees. But to us who have been inside the building for grade school and four wonderful years of high school there are memories attached to each tree that has been planted by classes in the past. The red brick is a symbol of activities and classes in which we have participated.

We hope that all future classes will come to have as many happy memories as we have now stored up to treasure in the years to come.

EDITORIAL

What is a high school? Is it brick and cinder-block walls, tile floors and hard, uncomfortable chairs? Is it a place of books and teachers and an atmosphere of eternal, relentless campaigns to impart knowledge to bored students? Is it a place to spend the fleeting hours between basketball games, plays, and dances? Well, it is all of these things to a certain extent, but moreover, it is a part of your life.

As we leave New London High School, we have a feeling that the curtain has been drawn on one act of our lives. We have tried in these few pages of the Exodus to capture a portion of what high school really is . . . the good and the bad . . . and the actors and actresses on this stage called life.

Richard W. Funk

- N L H S -

To the Members of the Graduating Class:

Congratulations to each of you as you graduate from New London High School. Your records, both individually and as a class, will stand as an example for those who follow.

Opportunities for a full and wholesome life can be had by those of you willing to make the necessary effort. Success will come largely in the degree that you are willing to help yourselves.

As you become alumni of New London High School, may you always remain interested in its welfare. The standards of a school are really measured by the accomplishments of its graduates - not by the marks they received as students.

Sincerely yours,

Gordon B. Flint

Supt. of Schools

To the Members of the Class of 1954:

After what has seemed like four long years in high school, you are suddenly faced with the realization that it has been four short years. As you go through life, you will find that time has a tendency to shorten itself as you add years to your span of life in much the same way.

It is up to you to make the most of the years ahead of you, and there is no better way than to allot your time carefully so as to include those things that will make yours a better life. Each of you will use many different methods to reach the goals you have set for yourself, and you will find that there will be many disappointments, but if you learn by your mistakes, you need not worry about the successful attainment of your goals.

The faculty join me in wishing you happiness in the years that lie ahead of you.

Sincerely,

R. J. Livingston

THE GLEE CLUBS

The Glee Club this year contains 24 sopranos, 14 altos, and 17 basses. The first presentation by the group was the Christmas Cantata. The main performance was at the Pops Concert on May 7. Several members took part in the All-State Festival. Instead of a Spring Concert, the Glee Club participated in a Regional Festival at Hopkinton including a joint concert with Hopkinton, Warner and Sunapee directed by Dr. Bratton of UNH.

FIRST ROW: Mrs. Fisher, Miss Parker, B. Simonds, B. Wells, A. Fitts. SECOND ROW: D. Gesner, V. Murray, J. Livingston, E. Barrett, G. Rich, R. Pellerin, G. Edmunds, D. Lamson, S. Kidder, P. Albee, N. Rowe, M. Granger, K. Allyn.

POPS CONCERT 1953

Pops Concert was made a big success by the enthusiastic singing of the combined chorus and the many specialty acts. Both girls' and boys' Glee Clubs gave fine performances. Dickie Cushing and Jim Squires played their guitars with Dick Funke, Leslie Enman and Jerry Allyn adding the lyrics to "Too Old to Cut the Mustard." Seven Junior and Senior girls did a "take off" on the song, "Love in Bloom."

The combined chorus sang "Dry Bones" with some of the members playing various odd instruments, such as a bell, xylophone and rattles which helped make this one of the most popular numbers on the program.

ALFA

1954 is initiated--From the multiple miniature pony-tails topped with tin pans to the lone hip-boot, with men's long underwear and burlap bags cinched by rope in between, the girls in the class of '54 were a sight! The boys were equally picturesque with one high heel and ankle sox, a girl's sweater, skirt and bathing suit top with a baby's bonnet covering ribbon-bedecked hair.

In this gala apparel the class of '54 earned their way through the doors of NLHS by pulling the class of '53 uptown in a cart. The evening was also embarrassing but lots of fun. We'll never forget John directing Gail or Veda washing Lin's hair with "Halo".

The Student Council sponsored several assemblies in the course of the school year. A fall quiz program was won by the senior team. The Christmas Assembly featured a Stephen Benet radio play followed by the tree and party. The Webster Dictionary Company awarded pins to winners of a Spelling Bee. Perhaps one of the best assemblies was the Talent Show. Several speakers addressed the school including: Col. Ben C. Limb of Korea, Rev. MacFarlane of the Civic League and Mr. Darling, Guidance Director of Northeastern University. Other assemblies featured movies.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

The N. L. H. S. boys didn't enjoy a too successful season this year. In spite of this the team played good basketball and showed good sportsmanship.

The boys were invited to the Keene Teachers College International Basketball Tournament. Playing such teams as Troy, Merrimack, and Weare, N. L. H. S. finished third in a field of eight.

CHEERLEADERS

The cheer team this year consisted of Karyl Allyn, Marlene Hersey, Bev Wells, Janet Preble, Roselee Pellerin, and Nancy Davis. The girls had two sets of uniforms and Miss Swain made maroon and grey pompoms to dress up the blouses.

There were many new cheers this year, with a lot of peppy action. Among the newcomers were "What do you Say?"; "Fight Cheer"; "Twirl my Turban"; and "We're on the Gym Floor". We all hope the cheer team will continue to improve in the future as it has done this year.

PERSONALIZED PORTRAITS

AND IT'S ALL DONE WITH LIGHTS

There's magic in lights . . . add a light here, place a spotlight there, and your portrait takes on the appearance of real form and individuality.

Your Vantine photographer knows how lighting effects can be best used . . . How easily they can reflect your personality.

Your Vantine photographer knows best how to secure the sharply etched photograph your engraver desires of the important senior year . . . The victories of the athletic teams . . . The brilliance of social occasions . . . The Prom . . . The plays . . . The debates . . . The expression of everyday life on the campus.

That personalized portraits by Vantine are important is attested to by the fact that over 300 schools and colleges repeatedly entrust their photographic work to Vantine.
